

Center for Community Opportunity

funded by Community Partnerships

The Center for Community Opportunity, located at Cloverknoll at 511 Mile Road in Tunkhannock, will serve residents of Wyoming County.

Student Internet Access (SMILES)

Remote school access with the Schoolwork Management Internet access, Learning and Education Support (SMILES) program

(SMILES) program will allow families without reliable, speedy Internet access an option to facilitate learning. Families with multiple children participating in online classes could utilize the space as well as children without adult support during workday hours.

About the workspace:

- Free Student Workspace & Internet Access
- Not a daycare or tutoring facility (student must be able to work independently)
- The center will always be supervised by an adult
- Following CDC Guidelines (temperature checks, Covid screening, social distancing & regular cleaning protocols)
- A reservation system will be used to ensure proper staffing and social distancing
- Initially the center will be open to grades 7th – 12th and college students, with plans in the works to support younger students
- Students will be separated by grade level and school to the best of our ability
